PARMIGIANO & PORCINI

Combining the savory flavor of porcini mushrooms with the umami of Parmigiano Reggiano cheese creates a rich and expressive salumi. The salty cheese and earthy mushrooms make it a perfect companion for red wines of substantial tannin.

FINOCCHIONA

Much like in Tuscany where Finocchiona was first created, fennel grows naturally in Sonoma County. Built upon three components of fennel: whole fennel seed, ground fennel, and fennel pollen, all enhanced with Sonoma County Chardonnay.

SONOMA ROSSO

Flavors that are distinctly Sonoma County: black pepper, mustard, fennel, juniper, anise, and Sonoma County red wine distinguish Sonoma Rosso. Rich, with a bold snap of cracked pepper and juniper that tantalizes on the finish.

NDUJA di SONOMA

Nduja di Sonoma, a spicy spreadable salumi. Uniquely Sonoma, a touch of Sonoma County Zinfandel is added to an array of local peppers combined with classic Calabrian peppers. The local peppers, cayenne, Aleppo and Piment d'Ville, are sourced from Whole Spice of Sonoma along with the Boonville Collective out of Anderson Valley.

IL PIO

Quatre Épices

Il Pio is a cherished family recipe that my great-grandmother brought over from Italy in 1894. Though she hailed from the Piedmonte region, the spice mixture she brought with her was strikingly similar to the French Quatre Épices blend, which consists of nutmeg, clove, white and black pepper, and ginger. Cracked black peppercorns compliment the red vibrant color of this salumi.

PEPPERONI

They call this the Goldilocks pepperoni because the cupping is not too much (indicates poor quality) or too little... just right! Serve atop pizza or on its own with burrata.
